THE WAR SURE.
A week has passed since Cleveland issued his "war" message. Since that time some important things have transpired which have revealed the true nature. It is a well known fact that the republicans in congress are in sympathy with the president on the financial question. Cleveland's chief aim is to make good his promises to the national banks of the country to retire the greenbacks, and issue the 500,000,000 of bonds that they desire. Under ordinary circumstances there would have been no trouble to get such a measure through congress, but Tom Reed's congress had decided on a do-nothing policy, hoping to further the time until he, as president, would gain the plaudits of the bankers by signing such a bill himself. Here is where Cleveland caught Reed napping. Cleveland, knowing that jingoism is one of the cardinal principles of the latter day saints of the republican party, sent the Venezuelan message to congress, and the paid hirelings of Blow-hole Carnegie took the matter up, and are standing by him. Bills amounting to hundreds of millions of dollars have been introduced into congress for strengthening the navy.
A bond bill has been decided upon by the ways and means committee of the republican house which will pass that body. It carries with it a virtually retirement of the greenbacks.
In the meantime the populists in the senate, assisted by Blackburn of Kentucky and Jones and Stewart of Nevada, are standing solid against the measure and may be able to defeat it.
The whole matter has simmered down to a question of bonds and further privileges to the banks. Just what the result will be no one can tell, but in the end the people will get the worst of it. Everything nowadays has to have a precedent to work from and it is nowhere recorded in holy writ, or in the history of man where the people have beaten the national bank octopus.

FOUND WANTING.
Speaker Reed sized up the mental caliber of the Kansas congressmen and assigned them to committees on their merits. Not one of them was given a chairmanship or placed on a committee of importance. Kansas has the reputation of having the weakest delegation in the American congress of any state in the Union.

A STRAW ON TAXATION.
Was it good economy and a measure to lessen taxes for the board of county commissioners of Reno county to employ county physicians and pay them $250.00 in excess of the bid of a physician who had held the position to the satisfaction of everybody. This is a fact that will not be disputed, and a straw for our Haven friends who are justly indignant because of high taxes.

THE KANSAS DELEGATION.
The little dogs representing the great state of Kansas at Washington in the lower house of congress have not yet begun to bark. They move around cautiously with their tails between their legs whining with disappointment because they are not noticed. They got snubbed by Speaker Reed and they are just now opening their eyes to the fact that they are small potatoes. The flashing interviews of a few weeks ago don't avail them anything now and the poor devils are badly crestfallen.

COIN'S LATEST.
We are in receipt of W. H. Harvey's latest work entitled "Patriots of America." All of Mr. Harvey's works are sought for by thousands of readers. He is unquestionably the most popular writer with advance thinkers on economic questions in this country and is doing more to educate public sentiment than any man that ever lived. His latest is up to the standard of his best and should be in the hands of every reader interested in financial and economic questions.
In addition to its literary merit it is guide for the organization of the Patriots of America with preamble, constitution and by-laws. All earnest free silver men will not fail to avail themselves of the opportunity to organize for effective work. This book is indispensable to the result intended and unite the free silver men in every part of the United States.

HOW TO AVOID PAYING TAXES
The law of the state of Kansas permits the owners of land who are delinquent in paying their taxes, and whose land has been sold for taxes, to redeem the same by paying all back taxes and costs at any time before the expiration of five years from the date of sale.
This law works all right so far as it applies to the owners of improved property, as the owner of such property will pay up and hold the property, but it works very differently with the owners of unimproved property.
Some men living in the east own from 1,000 to 60,000 acres of land in western Kansas, on which there are no improvements. It is simply held out of use by the owner for a higher price, and land held in that way is a serious detriment to the country. Actual settlers are obliged to pass over it and beyond it, and if this vacant land rises in value, it is by the presence and labor of the actual settler, and not by anything done by the owner of such land. But the actual settler will not buy these tax-titles, as he wants a home and will not buy land that can be taken away from him in five years. The result is that these lands cannot be sold for almost anything. After the taxes have accumulated to a few hundred or a thousand dollars, the agent of the eastern owner and speculator goes to the board of commissioners for the county in which the land is located and offers a nominal sum—perhaps not more than one-tenth are one-hundredth of the tax, and the commissioners take what they can get and the title is made good again. This enables the owners of vacant land to hold it out of use for another five years, when they can repeat the same tactics.
The same course is pursued by the owners of vacant lots in the suburbs of the cities and villages. The law enables them to very nearly escape the payment of all taxes, and in so doing enables and encourages them to hold land in idleness, which is a great detriment to the country. Unimproved land should be sold outright for taxes, and in this way discourage the holding of land in idleness. Any law which favors the land speculators is bad. We need no land speculators, and don't want them. By all means compel them to pay the last cent of tax or lose their land.

IDLE MEN AND IDLE LANDS ARE INCOMPATIBLE WITH COMMON SENSE.
GOLD is being mined at a cost of less than six cents on the dollar. This causes Herb George to remark: "Now let the intrinsic value fool take the floor."

What Labor Does.
Topeka Advocate.
Labor casts 80 per cent of the vote.
Labor raises 100 per cent of all the crops.
Labor creates 100 per cent of all the property.
Labor does 100 per cent of all the useful things done in this world.
If labor was not ignorant it would be king; but it is ignorant, so densely ignorant that it is bought, bulldozed, or cajoled into voting directly against itself at every election.

A Generous Offer—$200 Given Away.
R. H. Woodward Company, Baltimore, Md., making a very generous offer of $200.00 to anyone who will sell within three months 200 copies of "Talks to Children about Jesus." This is one of the most popular books of recent years. Agents often sell from 10 to 15 copies a day. It contains a great many beautiful illustrations, and is sold at a remarkably low price. They give credit, and pay freight, and send complete canvassing outfit for 35 cents. It is just the book to be sold for the holidays. They also offer an Estey Organ, retail price $270, to anyone who will sell 110 books in three months. It is an excellent opportunity for a church or society to secure one of these organs. A $100.00 bicycle to be given for selling 80 copies in two months, or a gold watch for selling 60 copies in one month. This premium is in addition to the regular commission. They have also published a new book, "Gems of Religious Thought," by Talmage, which is having a large sale. Same terms and premiums as on "Talks to Children about Jesus." Agents who do not get any of the premiums are given a liberal commission. They also make a specialty of other books and Bibles for Xmas holidays. Write them immediately.

Cosmopolitan.
Two very important facts in connection with the new era of magazines are illustrated in the December Cosmopolitan. Its fiction is by Stevenson, the last story written before his death, "Ouida" Sara's Grand, Zangwill, and the beginning of James Lane Allen's new Kentucky realistic story "Butterflies." Probably no stronger array of fiction has ever been presented in any magazine—money could not buy better. Nor has any magazine ever had a larger number of really distinguished artists engaged upon the illustration of a single number. The reader might be puzzled to know how such a number can be made at the price of ten cents. But the magazine itself affords the solution. It contains 178 pages of advertising, which, as the publishers announce, is from $4,000 to $8,000 more net cash advertising than was ever before printed in any magazine, of any kind, and in any country. It breaks the world's record in the publishing business. Moreover, the cost of the artists and authors who appear in this number is divided amongst 400,000 copies, bringing the cost per copy proportionately low. The Cosmopolitan thinks that the ten cent magazine, as it does, is the best in its kind and literature into all classes, is an educational movement second in importance only to that of the public schools.

THE BEAUTIFUL ROCKIES.
They Contain the Grandest Scenery and the Richest Gold Mines in the Known World.
For unknown wealth in fabulous rich mines of gold and silver and sparkling precious gem stones, not to mention the lovely scenery, our own Rocky mountains exceed any region on earth. The Illustrated Weekly, of Denver, (founded 1890) illustrates the most scenic country each week and tells about the wonderful west. Also, true stories of love and adventure. This big family paper, containing eight large pages, fifty-six columns, will be sent out free three months (thirteen weeks) for only ten cents stamps; club of six for a dollar bill. Handsome gold rings set with beautiful Rocky mountain gems are given free as premiums. Address as above and mention THE GAZETTE when you write.
